Proud to represent and live in York Centre

Dear friends and neighbours,

At the rising of the sun and it's going down, we remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.

At the beginning of the year and at its end, we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

We express sorrow with words that we know are not sufficient. We are grateful to our own local branch 527 of the Royal Canadian Legion that acts as a bridge to the past through the generations. Especially on 'Remembrance Day' we as a grateful province pay a debt of honour to those lives lost in the defense of freedom and democracy, in the defense of Canada.

There is no place like home. For my family, we have treasured the warmth of our collective York Centre community, a place of diversity and friendship. In good times and in sad, we have stood together. We all have an equal place as part of the kaleidoscope on the 'Quilt' of Ontario.

Lest we forget.

Most respectfully,

Michael

Michael in the Community

I was really glad to be with our neighbors again at Nicole's 12th Annual Pumpkin Patch right here in York Centre.

Nicole is an example of someone who promotes the values of bringing people together as a community.

Thank you for organizing this meaningful event that everyone looks forwards to.

Delighted to visit the art exhibition of one of our local and talented resident artists, Sara Petroff, right here in York Centre. It's a true celebration of our community's rich artistic talent.

Supporting local businesses in our community is important. Recently, I had the opportunity to visit AAA Vacuum, as a part of the Wilson Avenue Business District. Jim and his Family are example of entrepreneurs that have been the fabric of our community for decades. Wishing them continued success.

I was honoured to be with Premier Ford to visit the Centennial College campus for Bring your Kids to Work Day with Bombardier. This location has, for over 100 years, been a centre of aerospace excellence, a place of innovation and imagination. The students of today will be the scientists and explorers of tomorrow.

Pleased to extend a warm welcome to Chairman Wofa Yaw, Charles Gyan, and Mark Berko from the vibrant Ghanaian community as they visited my office to start planning their 2024 Ghana Fest, next summer, which will be held again in our community.

Michael as Solicitor General

Premier Doug Ford was joined by our caucus and community as they stood united against the terrorist attacks on October 7th. It's about moral clarity, of good vs evil and defending those who have been victims of terror. Hate has no place in our Ontario, it is toxic to our democracy. I will always be there for our Jewish Community.

At the Firefighter Memorial, we paid our respects to the 49 names added to this hallowed tribute. We will always remember those who have served our community so we can live safely in it.

An immense honor to join the Consul General for Israel at Queen's Park and offer condolences to all those whose families lost loved ones in the terrorist attack of October 7th.

We denounce acts of terrorism and the scourge of hate of all kinds, which not only threaten our democratic values but also defy the very essence of humanity.

Together, we send a resounding message: We stand with the democratic State of Israel and against all forms hate, discrimination, and intolerances.

Pleased to be with my friend Attorney General Doug Downey at the Public Safety Federal-Provincial-Territorial Minister's meeting in Quebec. As Solicitor General, the Minister responsible for Public Safety in Ontario, I advocated to my colleagues how important our local public safety is.

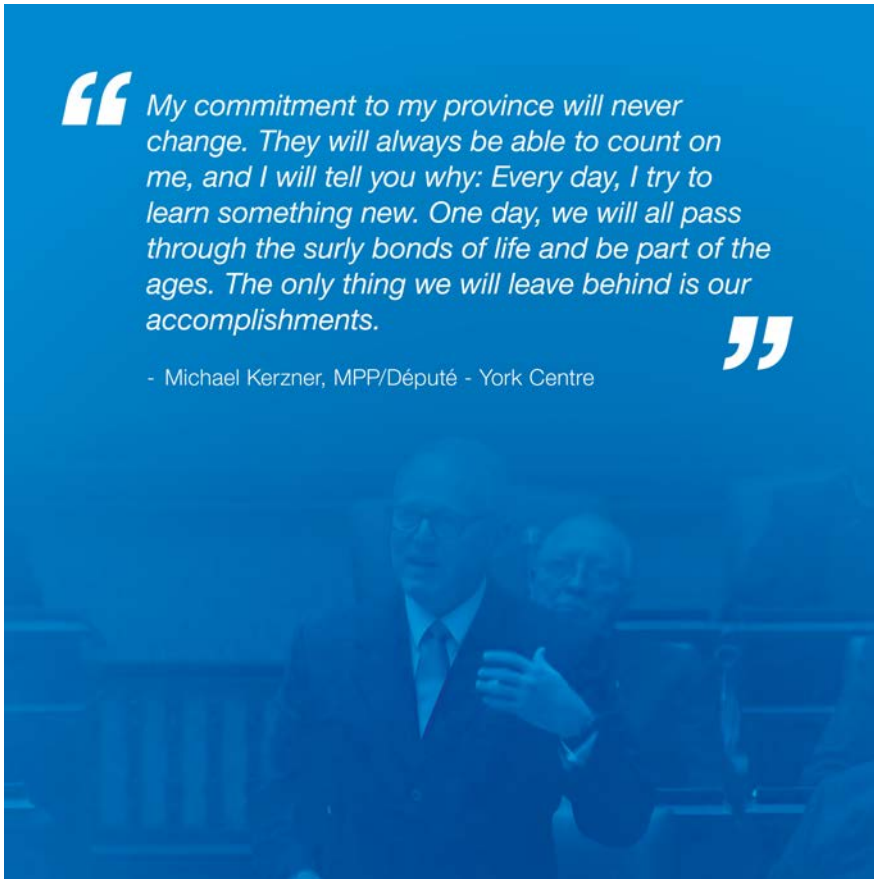

Joined with my cabinet and caucus colleagues at the Toronto Holocaust Museum to show our governments unwavering support. We announced our government is expanding mandatory Holocaust education.

Notable Quotables

“ My commitment to my province will never change. They will always be able to count on me, and I will tell you why: Every day, I try to learn something new. One day, we will all pass through the surly bonds of life and be part of the ages. The only thing we will leave behind is our accomplishments.

“ I look at our Ontario. It's special, and it's unique. It's a kaleidoscope, a collage of incredible and irreplaceable diversity, of secular and religious, of different faiths, of different creeds. The quilt of Ontario is ours. It is a microcosm of cultures living together. And there are inherent values we share in our Ontario—the values of our rights to live safely in our own homes and communities so we can take our kids to school and wake up our loved ones, we can go to work, we can shop, and we can pray. And we are grateful beyond measure for those who keep our communities safe each and every day.
